

Consecration of Oneself to Jesus Christ
Through the Hands of Mary
By
St. Louis Marie De Montfort

Daily Prayer

I, N _____, unfaithful and sinful as I am, today take your hands in mine, and renew and ratify my baptismal promises, renouncing for ever Satan, all his seductions and all his works, and making a total donation of myself to Jesus Christ, Wisdom incarnate, with the intention of carrying the cross in his footsteps all the days of my life and of being more faithful to him than I have been until now. Today, with the whole court of heaven to witness, I choose you for my Mother and Queen. As your slave, I deliver up and dedicate to you my body, my soul, all my spiritual and temporal possessions, including even the rewards of any good action of mine, past, present or future, with the right to make use of me and what is mine, without exception, as you think best for the greater glory of God in time and eternity. AMEN.
